From Your Pastor's Heart

Welcome to August, a month when the summer activities are winding down and school starts back. August is also the last month of the church year. I want to thank all the officers and workers who have invested in the Kingdom's work this year. This summer PBC had 49 children who came to VBS. Our Children's Program "Loving God, Loving You" was a great success again and will continue through August 12th. The Mission Friends were able to go on a morning Mission Trip to Yanceyville and the Children's Sunday School was able to enjoy a day at the movies in Danville. This means we have had lots of adults working with our children this summer. Thank you for being the hands and feet of Christ.

As you read the Bible, you know Jesus loved children. In fact, Jesus says in Matt. 18:3 unless you are converted and become as little children, you will by no means enter the kingdom of heaven. Children are used as an illustration of greatness. Children are neither sinless nor perfect, but they do have characteristics that all Christians need. Children are teachable. They are simple in their wants. They come to events with expectant attitudes. They depend upon their parents to meet their needs. Of course, the only way we can be children of God is to be born again. Are you teachable, simple in your ways, opening God's word and entering His house (the Church) with great, expectant attitudes? Do you depend upon God for your every need?

Yes, this summer we have taught the children about God's love, but have we learned the lessons God is teaching us through them? Come join us this Sunday with great expectant attitudes!
