Clearing the Hurdles!

Greetings Church Family,

Wow! Is it just me, or has January flown by? I hope you enjoyed the first month of 2017. Did you enjoy the snow? My favorite kind: here and gone. Our chili cook-off was fun. Keith Gregory came away with the blue ribbon! Our Family Fun Night was just that, FUN! Who knew that Becky Burton was such a competitor? Don't worry if you missed it. We have another scheduled for February (Check out the calendar).

We are heading towards February, the “Love” month. Our theme for the month in the SBC, is “True Love Waits.” Be in prayer for youth, young adults, and singles. The focus of TLW is abstinence, a lost concept in our culture.

So, don't forget to let people know that you love them! A word of encouragement, a note, or a card, it doesn't take much. Just a little love. Love is spelled TIME!

God Loves You, and so do I!
